

Sun Valley Playschool Code of Honor

This Code of Honor is designed to describe rules, expectations and consequences for parents/students behavior. We asked that parent/guardian reviews The Code of Honor with their child and have a discussion regarding our program's expectations. Our Code of Honor involves the child, the parent and the staff. Please sign below for acknowledgment.

The child is committed to:

- Actively participate in class as this is very important to their learning experience and to their classmates
- Respect all persons and property
- Abide to all classroom rules; behave in an appropriate manner
- Learn to regulate their emotions
- Be proud of the work they do
- Be positive
- Have Fun

The parent/guardian is committed to:

- Ensure that their child attends the program each day and promptly reports an absence or tardiness to the staff
- Assist their child in being healthy, neat, and clean
- Provide all resources required to ensure child's success
- Respect the program's approach to play, learning and safety
- Respect and accept staff decisions when safety of their child or others is in question
- Refrain from using profanity, abusive language or inflammatory actions in personal interactions
- Seek changes in an orderly and approved manner

IMPORTANT: Any unacceptable behavior from either a parent or child (i.e. gross disrespect, threatening, or causing disruption to professional or academic climate) towards any staff member or child will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the program.

Sun Valley Staff is committed to:

- Appreciate childhood as a unique and valuable stage of the human life cycle
- Provide a safe and loving environment for children to thrive
- Base our work on knowledge of how children develop and learn
- Respect the dignity, worth, and uniqueness of each individual (child, family member, and colleague)
- Respect diversity in children, families, and colleagues. Recognize that children and adults achieve their full potential in the context of relationships that are based on trust and respect
- Appreciate and support the bond between the child and family
- Recognize that children are best understood and supported in the context of family, culture, community, and society

Parent/Guardian Signature

Childs Initials

Date